

INTERNATIONAL ALERT ACADEMY

Volunteer Service Application

As a volunteer at the International ALERT Academy (IAA), you will fulfill an important role in the Lord's work. Volunteers are not employees as it pertains to monetary compensation; however, a volunteer's efforts ideally cannot be distinguished from those that are. With the proper perspective, a volunteer will reap rewards from the King of Kings that cannot be matched by any system of currency. Our goal for volunteers is three-fold: 1) support the mission of the International ALERT Academy, 2) capitalize on the volunteer's time of service to result in positive spiritual, physical and emotional growth in the life of the volunteer, and 3) demonstrate stewardship with the resources God has provided.

Statement of Volunteer Service And Release of Liability

The Institute in Basic Life Principles (IBLP) and the International ALERT Academy (ALERT) are very grateful for the many volunteers who desire to serve others through the ministries of IBLP and ALERT. Whether the volunteer service involves prayer, counseling, humanitarian aid, grounds and facility maintenance, or building construction and repair, the staff of IBLP and ALERT welcome the assistance of volunteers who do all that they do “heartily as unto the Lord” (Col. 3:23).

As a volunteer, I the undersigned, desire to support the missions and purposes of IBLP and ALERT through my volunteer service and do not desire or expect financial compensation for my time. While I appreciate the provision of incidental benefits, which may include lodging and/or meals, I am in no way dependent upon IBLP or ALERT for my livelihood and such benefits are not the motivation for my service.

I, the undersigned volunteer, also recognize and acknowledge that there are risks to my person and property associated with volunteering my time to do different projects for IBLP and ALERT, including but not limited to, loss of property, sickness, physical injury or death resulting from my own actions or the actions of others, including other volunteers. I voluntarily assume all risks of death, injury, illness, and damage to myself, and any damage to my personal property while I am volunteering my service.

Furthermore, I the undersigned volunteer, do hereby release IBLP and ALERT, as well as their employees, and agents from liability for any injuries to myself or to my property during the time I volunteer my time and energies to serve with IBLP or ALERT, and I knowingly assume all risks. I do also hereby indemnify and hold harmless IBLP and ALERT, as well as their employees, and agents, for any and all claims of liability against IBLP and/or ALERT arising from, or related to, my volunteer service.

I, the undersigned volunteer, expressly agree that this Statement of Volunteer Service and Release of Liability is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by law. I further state that I HAVE CAREFULLY READ THE FOREGOING AND UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS, AND I VOLUNTARILY SIGN THIS RELEASE AS MY OWN FREE ACT.

Statement of Faith

International ALERT Academy

“The International A.L.E.R.T. Academy affirms the cardinal doctrines of Scripture that have been defended by historic statements of faith. These include the divine inspiration of Scripture, the deity of Christ, the original sin nature of man, the atonement for sin by Christ’s shed blood, and the justification by faith in Jesus as the Christ.”

“We also believe that a complete and inspired statement of faith was given by Jesus Christ when He taught precise commands on how to love God and others, and that these commands transcend all cultures, nationalities, religions, and political systems.”

Our Vision

To Train Men and Women of Valor to be World Changers,
Willing (heart) and Capable (skills) to Serve and Disciple Others (opportunity)
